Covering up in Style

Aren't hard disks the libraries of our time, of the digital age? With some distinctions. Those usually look less impressive and you can't carry them with you. As the ICY BOX IB-285 proves, you can do the latter easily. And you can do it in style now. The IB-285 is a portable enclosure for a 2.5" SATA hard disk drive. It has the size of a pocket diary. The light metal case inside the soft leatherette coating is a solid protection for the HDD. The buckle turns out to be holding the USB plug. So the speed advantage of USB is not affected by the search for a cable. Finally there is nothing to be covered-up with the IB-285.
