Description / Advertising text

Whether spring, summer or autumn: The protective cover on the LinoProtect 400 extends the laundry's outdoor drying season and makes drying clothes completely independent of the weather. That's because the stylish, waterproof cover protects the laundry from rain as well as from the bleaching of UV rays. The parasol-style cover also keeps dirt and dust off the lines and laundry. A patented easy-pull opening mechanism on the central pole allows for straight-forward and convenient opening. The patented 'lift-off protection' and its sturdy design ensure a secure fix even in strong wind. With 40 metres of line length and 8 clothes hanger holders for approx. 4 washing machine loads. Includes ground sleeve.
