Mouse pad black 450 x 400 mm glass coating

Description

This soft mouse pad by Delock is especially suitable for everyday use of a computer mouse. With its rubberized underside it is non-slip and can be used on various surfaces. Due to its size, it is also ideal as a base for laptops or tablets and leaves additional space for the use of a mouse.

"Glass" Coating

The mouse pad by Delock is particularly characterised by itsspecial surface coating, the so-called glass coating, which makes the surface very smooth. This allows the mouse to glide much faster and more accurately than on conventional mouse pads.
