

INEO INSTALLATION SYSTEM

Urinal inox flush plate

Front plate for manual control

INEO AU109

H909109 928 000 1

TECHNICAL DATA

|                  |                                                                                                                                                          |                     |                               |
|------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------|-------------------------------|
| Order no.        | H909109 928 000 1                                                                                                                                        | Mounting acc. incl. | Operating rods                |
| matching for     | Installation element for urinal without integrated controlINEOLINK, order no. H940101, H940103                                                       |                     | Fastening set                 |
| Dimensions       | 126 x 162 x 17 mm                                                                                                                                        | Colours             | 928 – Stainless steel brushed |
| Specification    | Front operated, actuation force below 25 N.For concealed urinal flushing.With pneumatic urinal cartridge valve.With cartridge filter screen. |                     |                               |
| Quality material | Stainless steel                                                                                                                                          |                     |                               |
| Weight           | 0,5 kg                                                                                                                                                   |                     |                               |

TECHNICAL DRAWINGS / S 1 : 10

